Jackson Mine Park IOHT Pavilion – Update

The City has received its agreement for the MDNR trust fund grant for the Jackson Mine Park Pavilion Project. The City council will be asked to pass a resolution at their July meeting accepting the $291,000 grant with the City's match being $194,100. The total cost of the project equally $485,100. If the resolution is passed the project will move forward.

OTHER BUSINESS – UPDATES

Negaunee Beautification Committee Report

The Negaunee High School wood shop class constructed 4 new Iron Ore Cart planters to replace the old and worn out carts. The NBC will do a PSA thanking Kevin Bell and his students for their work. The True North credit union has a funding source available that the NBC will be applying for to assist with future projects.

Western Marquette County Health Foundation

The City was informed we were not selected as a grant recipient for the spring WMCHF grant submitted for Buffalo Road park renovations

Teal Lake Beach Area

Commission member Rogers discussed the ongoing issue with the goose droppings at Teal Lake and how it is affecting the swimming area.
